

1. This Earth Belongs To God

1. This earth belongs to God,
the world, its wealth and all its people;
he formed the waters wide
and fashioned every sea and shore.
Who may go up the hill of the Lord and stand in the place of holiness?
Only the one whose heart is pure,
whose hands and lips are clean.

2. Lift high your heads, you gates;
rise up, you everlasting doors, as here now the King of glory enters into full command.
Who is the King, this King of glory,
where is the throne he comes to claim?
Christ is the King, the Lord of glory,
fresh from his victory.

3. Lift high your heads, you gates, and fling wide open the ancient doors, for here comes the King of glory,
taking universal power.
Who is the King, this King of glory,
what is the power by which he reigns?
Christ is the king, his cross his glory,
and by love he rules.

4. All glory be to God
the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit;
from ages past it was,
is now, and evermore shall be.

Christopher Idle

2. Deep In The Human Heart

1. Deep in the human heart
the fire of justice burns;
a vision of a world renewed through radical concern.

As Christians we are called to set the captives free,
to overthrow the evil powers
and end hypocrisy.

2. This is our task today:
to build a world of peace;
a world of justice, freedom, truth,
where kindness will increase;
a world from hunger freed,
a world where people share,
where every person is of worth
and no-one lives in fear.

3. Taking the step of faith,
we leave the past behind and move into the future's world with open heart and mind.
By grace we work with Christ,
as one community,
to bring new hope and fuller life
to all humanity.

B. Wallace; G. Elvey

3. I Cannot Tell

1. I cannot tell why he whom angels worship should stoop to love the peoples of the earth, or why as shepherd he should seek the wand'rer,
with his mysterious promise of new birth.
But this I know, that he was born of Mary when Bethlehem's manger was his only home,
and that he lived at Nazareth and laboured;
and so the Saviour, Saviour of the world, has come.

2. I cannot tell how silently he suffered as with his peace he graced this place of tears, nor how his heart upon the cross was broken,
the crown of pain to three and thirty years.
But this I know, he heals the broken-hearted,
and stays our sin, and calms our lurking fear,
and lifts the burden from the heavy laden;
for yet the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is here.

3. I cannot tell how he will win the nations, how he will claim his earthly heritage, how satisfy the needs and aspirations of east and west, of sinner and of sage.
But this I know, all flesh shall see his glory,
and he shall reap the harvest he has sown,
and some glad day his sun will shine in splendour
When he the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is known.

4. I cannot tell how all the lands shall worship, when, at his bidding ev'ry storm is stilled, or who can say how great the jubilation
when ev'ry heart with perfect love is filled.
But this I know, the skies will thrill with rapture,
And myriad, myriad human voices sing,
and earth to heav'n, and heav'n to earth, will answer:
'At last the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is King!'
William Young Fullerton

4. Take Up Your Cross

1. 'Take up your cross,' the Saviour said
'if you would my disciple be:
deny yourself, forsake the world,
and humbly follow after me'.

2. Take up your cross – let not its weight fill your soul with vain alarm;
his strength shall bear your spirit up'
and brace your heart, and nerve your arm.

3. Take up you cross, nor heed the shame nor let your foolish pride rebel;
the Lord for you endured the cross to save your soul from death and hell.

4. Take up your cross, then in his strength, and calmly every danger brave;
he guides us to a better home,
and leads to conquest of the grave.

5. Take up your cross and follow Christ nor think till death to lay it down;
for only they who bear the cross
may hope to win the glorious crown. C Everest

Stations of the Resurrection

Over seven nights, in the week after Easter (April 3 - 8), Holy Trinity Cathedral will host an interactive art installation called re.cognition. This is the result of a collaboration between Sarah Park and Mark Pierson. There will be a number of different stations around the cathedral inviting people to engage in the Easter story, focusing on the resurrection narratives.

In order to make this all happen, volunteers are needed! Young and old, mobile and not so mobile. There are lots of ways people could assist: by working with station curators in the construction of props, or in setting up and taking down their station, or by being present over the course of the installation as poets or hosts or offering hospitality.
