

1. Praise The One

1. Praise the one who breaks the darkness with a liberating light.

Praise the one who frees the prisoners, turning blindness into sight.

Praise the one who preached the Gospel, healing every dread disease, calming storms and feeding thousands with the very bread of peace.

2. Praise the one who blessed the children with a strong yet gentle word.

Praise the one who drove out demons with a piercing two-edged sword.

Praise the one who brings cool water to the desert's burning sand. From this well comes living water, quenching thirst in every land.

3. Praise the one true love incarnate: Christ who suffered in our place.

Jesus died and rose for many that we may know God by grace.

Let us sing for joy and gladness, seeing what our God has done.

Praise the one redeeming glory, praise the One who makes us one.

Rusty Edwards

2. I Will Sing A Song Of Love

I will sing a song of love to the one who first loved me, and I'll sing it as a child of God, who is named and known and free. For the love of God is good, it is broad and deep and long; and above all else that matters, God is worthy of my song.

1. And I will not sing alone but with earth and sky and sea, for creation raised its voice well in advance of me.

2. And I'll sing with every soul, every language, every race, which proclaims this world is good for God has blessed this place.

3. And I'll sing for what is right and against all that is wrong, because God is never neutral who inspires my song.

John L Bell

3. Eternal Father Strong To Save

1. Christ our health and Christ our healing, hear our brothers', sisters' plea.

Firm us up in faith and feeling, set our bodies, spirits free.

Lustre to all flesh revealing, Christ our sure immunity.

2. Take our bodies, bruised and broken, break them as thy living bread.

Make of passion wounds a token, cleansed and filled with wine instead.

In this Sacrament be spoken words of solace still unsaid.

3. Speak of love that dares be nameless, Love that calls us to this place.

Nor shall fever still inflame us, save the ardour of thy grace.

Christ, thy paths are pure and blameless, Peace attend us all our days.

4. Christ our health and Christ our healing, Christ our struggle yet to be,

Christ our font of faith and feeling, Christ our final victory.

Christ our love to life appealing, Christ our true immunity.

Edward J Moran

4. May The God Of Hope

1. May the God of hope go with us every day, filling all our lives with love and joy and peace.

May the God of justice speed us on our way, bringing light and hope to every land and race.

Praying, let us work for peace; singing, share our joy with all; working for a world that's new, faithful when we hear Christ's call.

2. God will be our Shepherd as we go our way and will not forsake us when we go astray. Even though the load of life is hard to bear, we must not forget that God is always there.

At All Saints we love to have children present and participating in worship. We also realise that at times they can get bored or upset.

Please note that there is a sound-proof crèche available, near the church door, which is well-supplied with toys and books, and is wired so the service can be heard.

Prayers for Self or Others

If you would like someone to pray with you confidentially over matters of concern or to give thanks, members of the Prayer Team will be available in the Sanctuary after the 9.30am service. Prayer requests may also be left in the box on the back table. Names of the sick will be included in the public prayers for one month (extended on request) and prayer support will be continued by the staff and Prayer Team on a daily basis.
